Greeting & Call to Worship -Psalm 19.1-4a Keith M. Haithcock, pastor & teacher

The heavens herald your glory, O God
and the skies display your handiwork.

Day to day they tell their story,
and night after night they reveal
the depth of their understanding.

Without speech, without words,
without even an audible voice,
their cry echoes through all the world,
and their message reaches the ends of the earth.

Psalm 8

O LORD, our Sovereign,
how majestic is your name in all the earth!
You have set your glory above the heavens.

² Out of the mouths of babes and infants
you have founded a bulwark because of your foes,
to silence the enemy and the avenger.

³ When I look at your heavens, the work of your fingers,
the moon and the stars that you have established;

⁴ what are human beings that you are mindful of them,
mortals that you care for them?

5 Yet you have made them a little lower than God,
 and crowned them with glory and honor.
 6 You have given them dominion over the works of your hands;
 you have put all things under their feet,
 7 all sheep and oxen,
 and also the beasts of the field,
 8 the birds of the air, and the fish of the sea,
 whatever passes along the paths of the seas.
 9 O LORD, our Sovereign,
 how majestic is your name in all the earth!

One: Here ends the reading inspired by God.
 May God grant to us wisdom and courage for interpretation.

All: Thanks be to God!
